

PRINT BROKERAGE

Your strategic print partner.

JH Specialty, Inc., works with various printers all over the country in order to meet or exceed your print production demands. We strategically coordinate print schedules to coincide with the optimum production cycles, thus enabling the end customer to realize economies of scale and competitive pricing benefits on all print jobs.

Since no single printer can match each jobs strict specifications, we encourage you to contact JH Specialty, Inc. Our knowledgeable staff understands the complexities of each print assignment, and therefore is able to skillfully match your unique project with the appropriate print partner.

Why a Print Broker makes Sense.

- ✓ We have exclusive relationships with experienced and reliable printers and suppliers all over the country.
- ✓ We can do ALL your Printing, which saves you time sourcing multiple printers and expensive administrative costs.
- ✓ We deal in volume, so you get the best prices, no matter the size of your print job.
- ✓ We utilize a competitive bidding process which enables you to get the best prices.
- ✓ We take advantage of the printers down or slow times to find you the best price for your jobs specifications.
- ✓ We handle project coordination, tracking, and provide effective communication, in turn eliminating costly errors in time and quality.
- ✓ We support team based collaboration to help you design your project so that you achieve the greatest impact for the best price.
- ✓ We oversee your job from start to finish—eliminating multiple communication channels and the likelihood of misinformation.

Environmentally Responsible Practice

JH Specialty, Inc. promotes the use of environmental friendly print processes and materials to help alleviate the impact the print industry has on our environment.

JH Specialty encourages the use of:

- Post-consumer / recycled papers
- Soy based inks
